We will sell, at public auction, on TUES-DAY, the 1st day of August, 1871, at 1 o'clock p. m., at the Exchange Salesroom, 55 2d street, Baltimore, THAT VALUABLE FARM in St. Mary's county, THAT VALUABLE FARM in St. Mary's county, near the junction of the Potemac and Wicomico rivers, known as the BUSHWOOD ESTATE, and containing 1,150 acres, more or less.

The SOIL is unusually fertile, and in a high state of cultivation; the large quantity of meadow land offers peculiar inducement to stock-raisers.

The tract lies in a compact body, is well watered and fenced, and has a superabundance of every variety of TIMBER, $10,000 or more of which could be cut off and large supply left for home consumption.

The PEACH ORCHARD is magnificent; contains about 10,000 trees, 5,000 of which are Hale's Early, and are in full bearing.

Besides Peaches, there are PEARS and other fruits (large and small), as choice in their variety as they are large in quantity.

The DWELLING, of brick, is one of the finest and most substantially built houses in lower Maryland, and commands a land and water view of at least thirty miles. It has also all the necessary out-buildings.

the social and cultivated, and churches, schools, mills, stores, &c., convenient.

Steamers to and from Baltimore and Washington stop at the wharf adjoining several times a week.

In addition to its merits as a farm, it commends itself not less to all lovers of sport for its ine shooting and fishing, which are unsurpassed by any place.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting for either business, study, society or marriage.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by the early habits of youth, viz:—Weakness of the Back and Limbs. Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the ligestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

MENTALLY.—The fearful effects of the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Self-Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vicor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of Consumption.

Young MEN

Who have injured themselves by a certain practice induiged in when alone, a habit frequently learned from evil companions or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects of emorment of life by the conse-

MARRIAGE.

Reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, without these the journey through tife becomes a weary pilgrimage, the prospect hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another is blighted with our own.

When the misguided and impruient votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sonse of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from education or respectability can alone befriend him. He falls linto the hands of ignoram and designing pretenders, who, incapable of curing, filch his pecuniary substance, keep him trifling month after month, ar as long as the smallect fee can be obtained, and in despair loave keep him trifling month after month, er as long at the smallect fee can be obtained, and in despair leave him with ruined health to sigh over his galling disapportatment; os, by the use of that deadly poison. Mercury, cause the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease to make their appearance, such as ulcerated sere throat diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dissiness of aight, deafness, nodes in the shin-bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, passgressing with frightful rapidity, till as the last the paints of the mouth or the bones of the none fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becames a horrid object of commiseration till death puts a period to his dreadful suffering, by sending him to that undiscovered country "from whence no traveler returns."

To such, therefore, Da, Johnson offers the most certain, speedy, pleasant and effectual remedy in the world.
